

THE FANCY GLASS BUSINESS. — At Gaudenfrel, Germany, the artist and glass-spinner, A. Prengel, of Vienna, has established his glass business, offering carpets, cuffs, collars, veils, etc., made of glass. He not only spins, but also weaves glass before the eyes of the people. The otherwise brittle glass he changes into pliable threads, and uses them for making good warm clothing by introducing certain ingredients, which are his secrets, and thereby changing the entire nature of the glass. He makes white, curly glass muffs; also ladies' hats of glass, with glass feathers, which are lighter than real feathers. Wool made of glass, it is said, cannot be distinguished from the genuine article. Glass is a non-conductor, and the time may not be far distant when it will cause a revolution in dress material.

A goat-raiser in Texas says he began with seven animals, and at the expiration of fourteen months had butchered three, sold three, and had thirty-seven left. He knows of no domestic animal fit for meat which is so prolific as the goat. The flesh of the kid resembles that of the deer, and as the goat subsists for the most part on leaves and weeds and very little on herbage relished by other animals, it can be reared with far less expense than any other domestic beast. Improved stock is of course the most profitable.

The Boston bird show embraces nearly 2,500 entries. It contains a Brazilian macaw that can repeat the first 30 lines of the Declaration of Independence, a canary that whistles "Yankee Doodle," the only Irish wren and African tourka in this country, and an eagle with wings that spread nine feet.

DR. SPINNEY & CO.,
No. 11 Kearny Street.

TREAT ALL CHRONIC AND SPECIAL Diseases.

YOUNG MEN

Who are suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretions will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the feet of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to forfeit five hundred dollars for every case of weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient can not account for. On examining the urinary deposits a very small portion of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin yellow hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Our Hours—10 to 12, and 5 to 6 Sundays from 10 to 11. No compensation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5. Call or address DR. SPINNEY & CO., No. 11 Kearny St., San Francisco.
